PETITIONER'S MOTION UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2255

Respondent United States of America, by and through its attorney, Assistant United States Attorney James C. Anderson, does hereby move the court for an Order granting the United States access to review Ex Parte documents held in the District Court Clerk's Office. In support of this request, counsel states:

1. In order to adequately respond to the subject matter pertaining to issues raised by the Defendant in his § 2255 motion, undersigned needs to review specific Ex Parte documents filed in Docket No. 07-CR-032-B.

2. More specifically, undersigned needs to review Ex Parte documents 58, 59, 63, 64, 69, 70, and 72 which relate to the use of a defense expert to analyze the Defendant's hard drive. The Defendant has alleged that his trial attorney was ineffective in relationship to his use of this expert. Thus, ex parte motions and orders relating to the hiring of the expert are relevant to the Government's analysis of this issue.

Wherefore, undersigned counsel for the United States respectfully requests the court for an Order granting the United States access to review Ex Parte documents.

DATED this 28th day of March, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTOPHER A. CROFTS
United States Attorney
