Case No. 07-CR-32-B

REQUEST FOR CLARIFICATION PRIOR TO TRIAL REGARDING DEFENDANT'S WITHDRAWN GUILTY PLEA

COMES NOW, the Defendant, Nathaniel Solon, by and through his attorney Thomas R. Smith and requests the Court to clarify issues of admissibility of the Defendant's guilty plea, the Court proceedings regarding that guilty plea and the Court's ruling in open court regarding admissibility of evidence of that plea.

Undersigned counsel does not presently have a transcript of the last motion hearing. To the best of counsel's memory, after the Court allowed the Defendant to withdraw his previously entered guilty plea, the Court stated that the guilty plea and/or the proceedings surrounding that guilty plea would be admissible. Federal Rule of Evidence 410 states that a plea of guilty later withdrawn and
