REQUEST TO ALLOW WITNESS TO APPEAR BY VIDEO CONFERENCE

COMES NOW the Defendant, Nathaniel Solon, by and through his counsel, Thomas R. Smith, and requests that his expert witness, Tami Loehrs, be allowed to attend the September 17, 2008 hearing by video conference.

Ms. Loehrs resides in the Tucson area. Having her travel to Cheyenne is not cost effective and involves expense that counsel believes the Court would not approve as a necessary expense under CJA appointment.

There are issues regarding this expert’s fees which undersigned counsel hopes will be clarified at the September 17th hearing.

Undersigned counsel understands that Ms. Loehrs’ actual appearance by video conference will be subject to availability of IT personnel to make appropriate arrangements, both in Cheyenne and Tucson.

Further, Ms. Loehrs may have other court appearance obligations that may prevent her being available.

Undersigned requests an Order allowing her to appear by video conference if arrangements can be made. A proposed Order is attached.
